An Exceptional Value

During this month we are making a special feature of this stationery, offering one pound of the paper and fifty of the envelopes, a combination for which we ordinarily ask 50c.

The Two—Special for 39c.

Don't wait until you need writing paper—buy it while you can get it at this price.

"CORA"

Metro-Wonderplay with the illustrious dramatic star

BILLY STEVENS

A five-act photoplay.

STORY OF THE PLAY—

Madame Renee, a fallen operatic idol of Paris comes to America with her daughter Cora, to seek a home. Madame Renee becomes ill and after several weeks of striving and struggling to succeed, she dies, leaving Cora alone and in destitute circumstances. In the tenement house where Cora's mother died there lives Marie and her crippled sister, Louise, and they take Cora to live with them when her mother passes away. Marie is an artist's model and poses for George Garnier, a famous artist. The artist is engaged to be married to Helen, the daughter of a very wealthy woman of high social standing. This wealthy woman, Mrs. Van Brook, has arranged the marriage of her daughter to satisfy her social ambitions. The artist really does not love her, but being tired of living a lonely bachelor's life he suffers his engagement to the girl to be announced. The girl Helen, in return, does not really love the artist, but complies with her mother's wishes and engages herself to the artist because of her mother. She is really in love with Carl Wilson, a young club man, who is a ne'er-do-well. His love for her is only a childish and girlish fancy. The rest is told in five big acts of photoplay.

FIRST RUN UNIVERSAL PICTURES

TONIGHT

"DR. NEIGHBOR"

Robert Bosworth with Dorothy Davenport with an exceptional cast.

A remarkable picture with the sincerity and sympathy, the realistic detail and the general all-round highness. A worthy play handled in a worthy manner. Dorothy Davenport, who reveals great powers as an emotional actress in this play, has the role of the injured Helen. Gretchen Lederer takes the part of the too soft hearted nurse, who expires her failure in duty by years of imprisonment. Emory Johnson, has the disagreeable highly unsympathetic role of the coldly calculating husband, and the smaller parts are in the hands of experienced Universal actors.

A story that will please all.
